Abstract (en)
A shaving aid delivery system (20) is provided for wet shaving. The shaving aid delivery system comprises an absorbent member (26) shaped to fit over a razor cartridge (2) and a fixing member (28, 30) that secures the absorbent member (26) to a razor cartridge (2). A shaving aid is disposed in the absorbent member such that, during use, the shaving aid delivery system (20) can be secured to a razor cartridge (2) and a portion of the shaving aid dispensed from the shaving aid delivery system member as pressure is applied to the absorbent member (26).
