Abstract (en)

The assembly (10) has a storage container (12) for storing a cosmetic product, and a dispensing member (14) e.g. pump, for dispensing the product. A massage and cosmetic product application device (16) includes a fixed support (24) that is fixed relative to the container, and peripheral massage members e.g. peripheral projections (26), connected to the fixed support. A central support (28) is moved relative to the fixed support, and actuates the dispensing member. Central massage members e.g. central projections (30), of the application device are connected to the central support.
