Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2238864A2] The drawer device (3) comprises a vertical frame (2) with a front plate (4) and a support base (10). The vertical frame is converted from a storage position to a drawing position, where the front plate is fixed at the frame side holding units over an upper holder (5) and a lower holder (6). An upper and lower locking shanks are locked with the holder units in a detaching manner.
