Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2239354A1] The separator aggregate (1) comprises a separator (3) for guiding two guide aprons looping a pressure roller twin (2). An exchangeable separator support (13) and an exchangeable guiding element (14) for guiding a fiber composite are provided. The separator support and the guiding element are detachably fastened with each other, and are attached to a separator. Independent claims are also included for the following: (1) a guiding element for a separator aggregate; and (2) a separator support for a separator aggregate.
