Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2239496A1] The method involves manufacturing a box-shaped base part to form a lamp tray (2) of the lamp. Corner portions (14,14',14'',14''') are manufactured and are connected with the box-shaped base part for forming a lamp frame (16). The connection takes place by welding. A part is stamped out for manufacturing the corner portions. The corner portions are formed by shaping the stamped out part.
