Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2258235A1] The set has an L-profile (8), and another L-profile (12) comprising side pieces arranged orthogonal to each other. One of the side pieces is divided into two edge areas (15) on both sides of a central area (14). A lug (16) arranged orthogonal to the side pieces and turned towards the central area is formed at the edge areas. A rectangular cover part (13) has edge length corresponding to the length of the L-profiles, where an edge of the part is inserted into a hook (18) that is engaged into the central area. The cover part has a flat plate and a reinforcement profile fastened to the plate. An independent claim is also included for a kitchen furniture comprising an installation recess for a refrigerator.
