Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2260975A1] The surface grinding machine (10) has a grinding tool and a movably driven workpiece holder (16) for holding a workpiece (20). A receiving area (26) has a handling device (38) for controlling the movement of a machined workpiece. The handling device is carried in a receiving position and in a transporting position. An independent claim is also included for a method for surface grinding workpiece processing.
