Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2267684A1] The label (1) has a support foil (2) and spare labels (20a-20c), which are removably fixed to the support foil. The spare labels are connected with the support foil in partial area (21) of surface area (25), and another partial area (22) of the surface area of the spare labels is assigned to an edge (24) of the spare labels. The former partial area of the surface area extends over width of 2 mm from another edge (23) of the spare labels. The spare labels are arranged adjacent to each other in a foil position.
