Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2289379A2] The holder has a base (1) and a frame (2) comprising profile pieces (3), which has a bearing area for a shower tray (5) and a c-shaped groove region (7) for fastening the base. The base is fastened to the profile pieces by a head element (9) that is laterally arranged at the profile pieces. A holding extension (10) is engaged in a slot (8) of open groove region. The head element is movable at the extension along the profile piece in a functional position and held in the groove region in a form fit manner.
