Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2314762A1] A paper maker fabric (1, 21, 31, 41) having a first fabric layer (2) made of first threads (4, 5, 6) and a second fabric layer (3) made of second threads being connected by first binder threads (6) extending in one direction being divided into first basic threads (5) forming a plain weave with the first threads (4), and into the first binder threads (6) forming a plain weave with the first threads (4) section-wise, the first binder threads (6) bind one second thread (9) at binder points (7, 8) on the outside, wherein first threads (4) extending transversely to the first binder threads (6) are not bound at the binding points (7, 8), the number of which exceeds the number of the second threads being bound there by the number of at least two, wherein only one single binder thread (6) is provided between two adjacent first basic threads (5) respectively.
