Abstract (en)
[origin: DE202007008048U1] The arrangement has several limiting surfaces that are arranged in different levels, where the arrangement is designed in a cuboid shape. The limiting surfaces exhibit a light plate (12) in area wise, which is attached to a light unit (13). The light plate comprises a translucent cover plate (14), which is connected with a light distribution block, where the light unit and the light distribution block are optically coupled with each other.
