Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2320020A1] The spacer pipe (1) comprises two glass panes with a pipe wall (2), which has a view wall (6), a base wall (7) opposite to the view wall, and two side walls (8) for connecting with the glass pane. One of the two side walls is strain-hardened for increasing the flexural rigidity of the spacer pipe. Independent claims are also included for the following: (1) a multi-disk insulating glazing comprises a gap; (2) a device for manufacturing a spacer pipe; and (3) a method for manufacturing a spacer pipe.
