Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2322292A1] The device (10) has a promotion device (14) for promoting articles provided with labels in a promotion direction (F), a detaching station (20) arranged at the promotion device for section-wise replacement of individual labels of the concerned article by mechanical effect on the label and a replacement station (22) for complete replacement of the label. An independent claim is also included for a method for removing of labels of articles, particularly of carrier crates for beverage or food containers.
