Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2322456A2] The stacking device (1) has a collecting container (10) for receiving a document stack from multiple documents that are stacked in a stacking direction. A depositing device is provided for transferring a document to be stacked in the collecting container. Independent claims are also included for the following: (1) a method for operating a stacking device; and (2) an arrangement with a feeding device.
