Abstract (en)

The invention relates an adhesive label (1) for labelling transportable items comprising goods, such as palletized goods. The label (1) comprises a first facestock part (4) comprising a delivery note including a packing list of at least parts of the goods, a second facestock part (6) comprising a machine readable identification, wherein at least the first facestock part (4) is attached to the adhesive label (1) by means of an facestock adhesive (8) so that the facestock adhesive (8) substantially remains on the adhesive label (1) if the first facestock part (4) is removed from the adhesive label (1), making the detached first facestock part (4) substantially non-sticky. The invention further relates to a plurality of adhesive labels (1), a pallet comprising goods, a method for transporting information on palletized goods and use of an adhesive label (1).
