Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2010063919A1] The labeling device (10) for a container (12), in particular for a bottle containing a drinking liquid, includes at least one sleeve (24) for covering at least one portion of the container. The sleeve (24) is made of resilient synthetic material and is sized so as to resiliently enclose said portion of the container after mounting the device onto the container.
