Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2354020A1] The box has an insert lid for closing an opening (3). A side flap (5a) is hinged on one side wall (4a) of the box, and another side flap (5a') is flapped into the opening. A guarantee tongue (6) having a trapezoidal form is pivotably hinged two opposite side of the lid. An outer contour of the guarantee tongue and a retaining opening (7) are matched to one another such that, when the lid is opened in the retained position, the guarantee tongue is caught in the retaining opening and a predetermined breaking point (8) tears. A hinge section (11) is hinged on one of the side flaps. The box is produced from a single blank of material, and consists of cardboard or laminated cardboard.
