Abstract (en)

The invention relates to a mop head cover for use with a flat mop device. This mop head cover (4) is designed as a piece of simple, thin, sheet-like material. The size of the mop head cover (4) is adapted to the size of a corresponding flat mop cover (5) of a complete flat mop device. Attachment means (8) of the mop head cover (4) are designed so that the mop head cover (4) will stay attached to the mop frame (1) of the flat mop device during floor cleaning.
