Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2388212A1] The cover has two cover part elements (23,24), where the latter cover part element is arranged at the former cover part element in a pivoted moving manner. A fixing unit (31) is provided for fixing the latter covering part element in an open position. The both cover part elements are connected with each other by a hinge connection (30). An independent claim is also included for a waste container, particularly large waste container, which has a waste container body.
