Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2390418A1] The offshore arrangement has a support structure (16), at which three vertical supports are mounted. A mounting clamp (20) is movably mounted along the support in the vertical direction. The mounting clamp is arranged in a transport position above a platform (12). A support carrying medium is arranged, where guide mediums are located on the platform. An independent claim is also included for a method for installing an offshore arrangement.
