Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2399713A2] The insert has foam bodies (1, 2) including a receiver (3) for a tool and a machine part and formed as a recess. A contour of the receiver is aligned on an outer contour of the tool and machine part. Photos (6) of the tool and machine part determined for the receiver are inserted on a bottom part of the receiver, where the photos are arranged on a photo film (4). A transparent protective film (5) is inserted between the photo film and the foam bodies.
