Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2400063A1] The foundation system (12) has a base (14) and a foundation member (1), where the foundation member has a bottom section (2) and an anchor (4). The foundation member is clamped by using the anchor with the base. The foundation member is connected to the base in a force-fit manner by using the anchor. An independent claim is also included for a method for construction a foundation system.
