Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2407080A2] The dishwasher has a component (2,6,7,9), which is provided, particularly with a prefabricated bitumen mat (11a to 11f) for sound deadening or sound-proofing of the component. The bitumen mat is glued on the component from a reactive hardened bituminous mixture by a glue layer. The component is provided as a plastic part, particularly polypropylene, and painted part, particularly metal. Independent claims are also included for the following: (1) a method for manufacturing a dishwasher; and (2) a device for manufacturing a dishwasher.
