Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2409742A1] The assembly (10) has a removable support (12a) fixed to a binding element (13). A maintaining unit (14) maintains the support on a ski (11). The maintaining unit comprises a front maintaining element (15) and a rear maintaining element (16). The front maintaining element comprises an articulation unit secured to the ski, and another articulation unit (18) secured to the support. The former articulation unit includes a retractable rod, and the latter articulation unit includes a hole (20) formed to receive the rod.
