Abstract (en)

[origin: CA2758102A1] The invention relates to a method for connecting slave cards (20) to a first bus system (30) and an arrangement (18) for performing the method. In the method, signals are transferred from the slave cards (20) to a CPU (28) by means of the first bus system (30), wherein a master (22) is associated with each slave card (20), and the signals are transferred from each slave card (20) by means of the associated master (22).
