Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2423384A2] The spraying device has fluid delivery devices for delivering large amount of fluid into the working chamber at fixed operating pressure. The fluid is passed to the fluid delivery devices through a conduit system. A control unit is installed for controlling the fluid delivery with respect to the fluid delivery devices. Several exhaust nozzles are installed within the inner surfaces of the fluid delivery devices. An independent claim is included for operation method of spraying device.
