Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2423396A2] The foam sealing strip (2) comprises narrow sides (7,8), which are installed inside or outside a construction. A partial longitudinal area (13) and partial longitudinal strips (14,15) are provided, where partial longitudinal strips are connected with the partial longitudinal area in the thickness direction of the foam sealing strip. The partial longitudinal area and the partial longitudinal strips are made of the same foam.
