Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2010127952A1] The invention relates to a kit for a furniture drawer pull-out guide, comprising at least one fastening flange (6) which supports a guide rail (5) and which is connected to a lateral wall (2) of a furniture body (1). Said invention is characterised by the fact that, for compensating the thickness of the lateral part (2), the fastening flange (6) is associated with at least one distancing plate (7 - 9, 17a - 17c, 23a - 23b) on which, in the mounted state, the side of the fastening flange (6) which faces away from the guide rail (5) rests.
