Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2431016A2] The patient lifting and turning device (10) has a retractable support member (14), on which a patient (34) is supported. A lifting unit (12) is equipped with two rotatably mounted rods (16,18), where the support member is fastened to the rods for lifting and turning the patient. One of the rods is driven by a drive unit for lifting the patient.
