Abstract (en)

A cooker bottom case and a cooker having the same are provided. The cooker bottom case is disposed with a support frame (1) on an inner surface thereof. A fastening and fixing device (2) is further disposed on the inner surface of the cooker bottom case. The fastening and fixing device is used to fasten and fix the support frame (1). Through the solution, the mounting efficiency of the support frame can be greatly increased, thereby improving the production efficiency of cookers.
