Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2010151210A1] The invention relates to a container (10) for storage of sundry items, e.g. waste items. The container has a bag-like outer case (12) made of flexible material with a container aperture adapted to accommodating an inner bag (40) of disposable type in the container, and a peripheral inner collar (20) in the outer case (12) is connected to the outer case at a distance from the container aperture for firm holding of an edge portion (42) of a bag aperture of the inner bag (40) by the edge portion being folded over down into a space delineated between the inner collar (20) and the outer case (12).
