Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2011012623A1] A shock-absorbing packaging element (110) for protecting at least one product (112) sensitive to impact is proposed. The shock-absorbing packaging element (110) comprises at least one absorbing body (114). The absorbing body (114) comprises at least one ductile material. The absorbing body (114) further comprises at least one surface (116), which has absorbing ribbing in at least one region. The absorbing ribbing (122) has at least one V-notch (126) in the absorbing body (114).
