Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2461225A1] The blade handle (2) has a rotatable handle structure that is provided with a gripping surface (4). A circular contour (K) is provided at the gripping surface. A curved guide portion (P) is equipped with a curved tip portion that is arranged with respect to a curved side portion along opposite direction. The curved tip portion is passed directly into the curved side portion. The minimum radius of the curved side portion is greater than the minimum radius of the curved tip portion. An independent claim is included for domestic appliance.
