Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2495053A2] The dispenser tool (10) has a piston rod (32) and manual driven feeding mechanism (36). The feeding mechanism has an operating lever (42), which is moved for pressing in an extrusion direction against a holding lever. An unlocking mechanism (46) is provided, which is engaged at a holding mechanism (38). The unlocking mechanism is coupled with the operating lever such that a detachment of the holding mechanism is carried out during movement of the operating lever.
