Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2497853A1] The plastic lye container (1) has a cylindrical container (2) surrounding the drum, where the cylindrical container consists of a molded container shell (3), on which a plastic lye container cover (5) is fixed on the front side (4). The height of a screw relief groove at a dome on the front side of the container shell is less than the height of a taper formed at the lye container cover.
