Abstract (en)

The present invention concerns a security envelope (10) for documents and/or valuables comprising: a sheet of paper (20), board or like, having a first face (21) and a second face (22) and two opposite lateral edges (23, 24), said sheet (20) being folded so as to arrange two portions of said first face (21) at least partially faced, overlapping each other said lateral edges (23, 24); said envelope (10) further comprising a first (41) and a second (42) coupling strip, each one of said coupling strips (41, 42) being applied respectively in correspondence of the overlapped portions of the lateral edges (23, 24) of said sheet (20), in order to realize the containment space (50). The present invention concerns also a method for realizing a safety envelope (10) for documents and/or valuables.
