Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2505922A1] The gas stove has a cover plate and a burner, where a gas mixing chamber, an outer burner cap (1) and a central burner cap (2) are provided. An additional central drop catcher (5) is located between an outer chamber and a central chamber for collecting and receiving the drops falling between the outer chamber and central chamber. The central drop catcher has a supporting part for mounting the central drop catcher between the outer chamber and central chamber.
