Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2336445A1] The half-shell element (10) is provided with an equal another half-shell element, where guides (20,20',20'',20''') are provided for the latter element. The latter element held out in a final position from the half circumference (11) opposite to another half circumference (11') of the rim (12). Independent claims are also included for the following: (1) a tool for manufacturing hollow bodies; and (2) a method for manufacturing hollow bodies.
