Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2525036A1] The container has an enclosure (14) for receiving objects e.g. banknotes (12). A spraying column (100) is arranged at inside the enclosure without having contact with side walls (18) of the enclosure. The column comprises ink spraying nozzles (109) including respective spraying axes (109a) that are arranged in different directions. The column comprises vertical branches (102) secured to one another. Each branch comprises a straight portion (102a) and a bevel-shaped tilting portion (102b) extending from the straight portion until a top part of the column.
