Abstract (en)
The jacket has a front face (1) and a rear face, where the front face includes a central portion (3) made of cotton based warp and weft fabric. The front face includes side portions (4a, 4b, 5a, 5b) located on both sides of the portion. The side portions are made of knitted mesh material with complex meshes comprising cotton and polymer. The knitted mesh material exposes the cotton and the polymer to respective inner and outer surfaces of the jacket. The portion has width ranging between 30 and 60 percent of width of a bust portion of the front face.
