Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2535204A1] The system has a floor panel (2) of a panel type and another floor panel (12) of another panel type. A side edge (8) is chamfered in the latter floor panel. Another side edge (10) is chamfered in the former floor panel. The decoration of the former floor panel in an edge area (4) is adapted on the decoration of the latter floor panel in another edge area (6). A structure of the former floor panel in the former edge area is adapted on a structure of the latter floor panel in the latter edge area. An independent claim is included for a method for manufacturing floor laying structure.
