Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2538147A2] When a user thinks "Is it a malfunction?" and wants to relieve this doubt and worry, the user first pushes a menu button (83b) on the remote control (80) and further pushes a minus button (83c) or a plus button (83a) to set the cursor on the "In a case such as... (inquiry menu)". Here, when the set button (83e) is pushed, two menu items, namely, "During heating operation..." and "From the outdoor unit..." are displayed. Further, when the set button (83e) is pushed while the cursor is set to the "During heating operation...", "The horizontal flaps will be in a horizontal state at the start of operation, during defrosting, and when temperature has become above the set temperature. It is not a malfunction" is displayed on the display unit (82).
