Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2551387A1] Machine (1) on a spinning line for textile processing, such as a carding machine, comprising a casing with sliding panels. In particular the guide system of the panels permits, in a parking position of the sliding panel, its positioning with the main wheel (60, 70) transversally alongside the sliding axis (X), to permit the overlapping of a further sliding panel and free the access to the inner components of the machine.
