Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2011126428A1] The invention relates to a bunk module (2) for use as bunk or as storage space (22) and for fitting in a vehicle cab (1), comprising a load bearing frame (14) and, disposed thereon, a mattress element (15) which is arranged to be releasable, or capable of being turned upwards, from the frame (14). The invention is achieved by wall elements (19a-d) being provided in the bunk module (2) and constituting in their deployed state a substantially enclosed storage space (22).
