Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2011138114A1] The invention relates to an article-storage system (100) for arranging in the interior of a refrigerator, in particular a domestic refrigerator, having a shelf (10) and having at least one storage tray (20; 30) arranged on the underside of said shelf. It is provided that the storage tray (20; 30) can be pivoted about a vertical axis (21'; 31') relative to the shelf (10) between a pivoted-in rest position directly beneath the shelf (10) and at least one pivoted-out access position. The invention also relates to a refrigerator having at least one such storage system (100).
