Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2011095680A1] The invention relates to a transfer form (2), a method, and a form guide (14), with the aid of which gabions are filled, moved, and positioned, in order to form a wall or similar structure. The transfer form (2) consists of a structure supporting a gabion (1), in which there is a foot construction (3), an extension (3a) of which acts, if necessary, as a base supporting the gabion. In the form guide, there is equipment permitting precise positioning.
