Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2573018A2] A spinning unit includes a drafting device and a spinning device that supply a spun yarn, a winding device that winds the spun yarn to form a package, a unit frame that supports the drafting device, the spinning device, and the winding device, and a yarn processing module (80) that is detachably mounted on the unit frame. The yarn processing module (80) includes a yarn pooling device (50) that pools the spun yarn between the drafting device and the spinning device, and the winding device.
