Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2012007741A2] A golf course bunker (10) comprising a plurality of substantially horizontal and staggered layers (11) of artificial grass turf is disclosed. The layers (11) may each be pre-impregnated with sand. The layers of artificial grass define an exterior surface of the bunker and the interior (5) of the bunker may be formed of different material. A method of construction is also disclosed which may include steps of excavating a bunker and laying artificial grass in horizontal layers (11) to face the exterior surface of the excavation.
