Abstract (en)
[origin: GB2481906A] A temporary template structure for placing columns or piles underwater. The structure includes an elongate leg member 1 which extends perpendicularly from a base 3 to a platform 5 which it supports. The structure may be carried to a suitable location by catamaran and may be launched from in between the two hulls of a catamaran. The structure may include a drill unit 7, a grouting system, a crane 8, ballast 4 and strakes 9.
