Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2607590A2] The furniture fitting (11) has a stopper device (44), which has a stopper element (45) that interacts with a counter-stopper (46) arranged on the furniture body (12) or on a fitting part of the furniture fitting for presetting a determined opening position of the movable furniture part. The stopper element has multiple stopper surfaces (47a,47b,47c), which are usable for presetting different opening positions.
